Rule of Law, F.R.C.P, and U.S. Cons-

I. Statement of issues

For reasons that are unclear the Defendants King County and it's employee's along With City of Seattle and it's Corrupt Officers Seems to think that by having the Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Can't illegally Convicted With a falsified Probable Cause Statement and no real evidence on un-related alleged Crimes "that have nothing to do With Why the Defendant's are Currently being Sued in U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington At Seattle, Under Civil Case No. 2:16-cv-01655-RAJ-JPD For these reasons Stated above maybe the Defendants hope to sway the minds of The HON. Richard A. Jones, and The HON. James P. Donohue?

III. Evidence Relied Upon

The Plaintiff rely on the "falsified" Probable Cause Statement Pertaining to the illegal Conviction that the Defendants King County Chose to Submit to the Courts (King County's Exhibit A, the Plaintiff Kyle Lydell (anty Exhibit N), also the Plaintiff has Submited to U.S. District Courts further documentation in the form of exhibits Signed by King County Superior Court Corrupt Judge Lori K. Smith, detailing the length of the illegal Confinement.

II Law and Argument

Pursuant to Washington ADministrati-tion Code "WAC", Revised Code of Washington "RCW", Department of Corrections Washington State "WCC"
"DOC", Federal ACTS and or Laws, and Federal funded programs, the State of Washington, King County, and the City of Seattle now must bear the cost to insure the Plaintiff/new Felon Kyle Lydell (anty the tools he will need for re-entry into Society/Community;

Such as stable permanent housing, not a homeless shelter, training federally funded higher education programs intended only for felons, Food Stamps, Free health insurance, and all other free services, grants, and money set aside just for felons. The question now for the Courts is Does the State of Washington, King County, and the City of Seattle understand that they must bear the financial burden to insure the Plaintiff's new felon Kyle Lydell can't all of the tools listed, or else MR. Kyle Lydell can't by law can file Civil actions again?

I. Relief Requested

The Plaintiff requests at this time that the Courts allow the Plaintiff Kyle Lydell can't to further Continue to teach all of the defendants a Valuable lesson When it Comes down to Corruption.

III Conclusion

" You Know that all of the Defendants have Dug a hole So deep for themselves, When the Washington Department of Corrections have doubts about the facts pertaining to the Plaintiff, Kyle Lydell Canty's illegal Conviction/New Felon Status."
